

Untitled

Current run (last updated Aug 31, 2016 9:34pm)

5

Polls

42

Participants

36

Average responses

Average engagement

Who ultimately has the responsibility for developing and maintaining a qualified public health supply chain workforce?

Response options	Count	Percentage
The Ministry of Health	23	72%
The Ministry of Education	0	0%
Funding agencies	2	6%
Implementing partners	2	6%
The Private Sector	4	13%
Other	1	3%

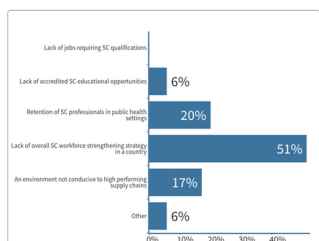

Engagement

32

Responses

What is the greatest challenge/constraint to public health supply chain workforce strengthening in lower and middle income countries?

Response options	Count	Percentage
Lack of jobs requiring SC qualifications	0	0%
Lack of accredited SC educational opportunities	2	6%
Retention of SC professionals in public health settings	7	20%
Lack of overall SC workforce strengthening strategy in a country	18	51%
An environment not conducive to high performing supply chains	6	17%
Other	2	6%

Engagement

35

Responses

Where should HR for SC strengthening take place in LMICs?

Response options	Count	Percentage
On the job/coaching/mentoring	24	67%
Academic institutions/technical colleges	7	19%
Centers of excellence	3	8%
Private training centers	1	3%
Professional associations	1	3%
Other	0	0%

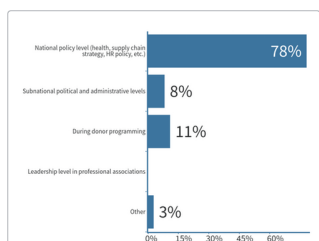

Engagement

36

Responses

At what level should HR for SCM be discussed for sustainable change to occur? (Who are the drivers of change?)

Response options	Count	Percentage
National policy level (health, supply chain strategy, HR policy, etc.)	29	78%
Subnational political and administrative levels	3	8%
During donor programming	4	11%
Leadership level in professional associations	0	0%
Other	1	3%

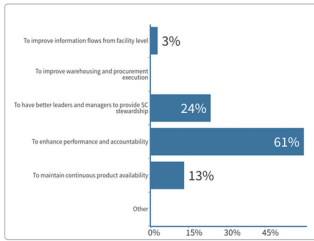

Engagement

37

Responses

Why should HR for SCM be a prioritized area for any public health system?

Response options	Count	Percentage
To improve information flows from facility level	1	3%
To improve warehousing and procurement execution	0	0%
To have better leaders and managers to provide SC stewardship	9	24%
To enhance performance and accountability	23	61%
To maintain continuous product availability	5	13%
Other	0	0%

90%

Engagement

38
Responses